

God by Gary Bate

Is God a personality? Or is God all personalities? Is God a separate entity? Or is God expressing through all of life? Is God singular or plural?

Why doesn't God answer your prayers? Be logical because I believe God is logical...

Is God a male or a female or both? It's good to question and contemplate this...

Supposedly God is sitting up there somewhere in Bliss. Why would God leave Bliss to help you? Why would God leave Bliss to help anyone? Why would God get involved here? Why? Exactly.

Would you leave Bliss to help someone whingeing on planet Earth?

People are illogical. Why would Jesus or his Mother be waiting for anyone to die to be able to help them? He and she wouldn't! They clearly have much better things to do...

It is not for God to come to us and help us with our woes; it is for us to go to God where God is...

We are conditioned to look outside of ourselves for stimulation. We have a choice. We can choose instead to focus on calm, patience and peace, as these qualities transfer to every aspect of our lives.
