

The Image (the Light) by Gary Bate

If you take a picture with one of those old film cameras, you capture the image (the Light) and the film is the negative (infrared image). This World has its image in the Light – the image has manifested into matter (into flesh). This is the Last Kingdom.

So if you fall off your perch, you obviously lose your Physical body and you find yourself in your Light body. Will you see the image of your family members across the river? Or the image of your saviour? Yes because you see what you expect to see. But it's not them; it's just a created image...

There's a mirror consciousness between here and the Light – it's the same consciousness, and you go to the Light because there's nowhere else you can go with your level of consciousness.

Who is the leader of your army? You are!

The very fact that we're all here means our consciousness has a lid on it and that lid is the overriding consciousness in the Light. We commute back and forth between here and the Light.

Our army (our cells) take their dictates from the Light. What's there (Light bodies) is the same consciousness as what's here – so there's nothing to fear. There's Light bodies in the Light and there's Light bodies hovering just outside this Earth's frequency (ghosts haunting). All these are people just like you and me who have died.

So the Light is not bliss; it's the extremes of the same consciousness that exists here... We have to step-up to reach bliss...

Certain families control this World and it's the same in the Light with the 'Lords of the Light'.

People who are not actively in pursuit of life-changing knowledge (who are not evolving) cannot be helped, until they wake up and open themselves up to such. If you're reading this, you are awake...

This Last Kingdom gives us (by virtue of our bodily senses) the opportunity to evolve (and step-up) beyond what we've already come to know. This opportunity isn't available in the image (the Light).

We are here to march our army into bliss and we do this by raising our consciousness (by removing the lid). The step-up is into the consciousness of the UV perfect body, which is unconditional love. When we do this our army no longer takes its dictates from the Light body but from the Blue body depicted by the deity Shiva.

The Angels in the Light have refused to descend here (they are cowards). As they cannot evolve any further due to their choice, they have to sustain (nourish) themselves energetically somehow. They do this by robbing our memories and that starts to occur the moment you move towards the Light...

But what if you tell them here & now (because all times exist now) that they don't have your permission to take your memories and you're not going to give your permission? Consciousness is everything! Tell these deceitful controlling scumbags. They will get it.

The great master resurrected his dead army (obviously with his great mind). We are marching our own armies – where are we marching to? Let's not be victims any longer...~ Gary.
